Chairman's Remarks

With this report, the Ontario Arts Council marks its 18th year of service.

We have reached our age of majority.

The Council was born in 1963, under the first chairmanship of the former Lieutenant-Governor, the late J. Keiller Mackay, by an act of the Legislature introduced by then-Prime Minister John Robarts. The Council was funded by the Ontario Government in its first year with an appropriation of $300,000 to provide support for the burgeoning arts activity of the province.

At that time, it seemed like a substantial amount, given the development of the arts in Ontario to that point.

But no one could predict then the incredible flowering of the arts that was coming. Over the next two decades — and particularly during the surging 'Seventies — popular interest, support for and participation in the arts was to mushroom dramatically.

As the arts grew, so did the resources of the Arts Council.

And in this report, for the year 1981-82, you will find details of more than $12,000,000 in grants to more than 1,170 arts programs and 1,495 artists throughout the province.

Those grants bring the Ontario government's total investment in the artistic development of the province through the Arts Council over 18 years to more than $100,000,000!

That's quite an investment. And the return on that investment has been amazing.

For one thing, Toronto is today the third leading theatrical production centre of the English-speaking world, giving place only to New York and London.

That fact was celebrated this year in the exciting Toronto Theatre Festival, which in one month resulted in 900 performances of 122 different stage productions. During the Theatre Festival, Premier William Davis pointed out, in a major cultural policy address, the stunning growth of the arts in Ontario.

He said it was nothing short of "explosive."

This year, I've had the opportunity to visit some 16 Ontario communities, speaking to a variety of groups about the importance of the arts and the work of the Council.

I've echoed the words of Prime Minister Trudeau and Premier Davis, both of whom have acknowledged that the Canadian cultural industry, of which the arts form the heart, contributes some six billion dollars annually to our gross national product. As our leaders have finally noted, that's a big industry, bigger than steel in Canada, bigger than the pulp and paper industry.

We've had recently some dramatic illustrations of what can happen when the activities of major art institutions are interrupted or threatened with discontinuance. Whether with the disruption of the Festival in Stratford, or the temporary closing for renovation of the McMichael Canadian Gallery in Kleinberg or the Royal Ontario Museum in downtown Toronto, civic leaders, businessmen and merchants have been quick to detect the dire results for their communities through loss of local and tourist spending around these institutions.

Yes, the arts do make a significant contribution to the economic vitality of our communities, large and small throughout the province. And it is high time we recognized that and started providing, on an individual and corporate level, the kind of support the arts need to grow and flourish.

Just think about the fact that some seventy cents of every dollar that goes into the arts, either as earned income, public contribution or governmental grants, goes straight into salaries and wages, to create and maintain jobs.

In these difficult economic times, that is surely adequate reason for proper recognition and support of the arts.

But I see another and perhaps even more compelling reason for us all to get behind the arts in our communities.

It is my personal conviction that in times as economically bleak and depressing as these, we need the restorative influence of the arts more than ever. We need the healing spirit, the wisdom and the harmony of all the arts as perhaps we've never needed them before.

Unfortunately, many pressures in our present society conspire to drive us apart, in fear, suspicion, frustration and resentment.

The arts, almost uniquely, bring us together, knit us into communities of shared human experience, sensibility and mutual appreciation.

The arts always deserve our wholehearted attention and support. But today, perhaps they demand that support more urgently than ever because our need for the sustenance of the arts is more pressing than ever before.

Every year sees change at the Council. For one thing, our twelve volunteer Council members are appointed by the Ontario government on a rotating basis for terms of three years. That means that we are always reluctantly bidding adieu to some members and expectantly welcoming others. This year was no exception.

In May, we saw the completion of his term and the departure of our colleague, H. T. Crozier Taylor of Niagara-on-the-Lake. And in June, we welcomed to our ranks Peter Harris, distinguished artist and director of the fine St. Catharines Gallery, Rodman Hall.

Also in this year we regretfully witnessed the departure of two of our most senior and respected staff members, Charlotte Holmes-Norcop and James Norcop.

Charlotte joined the Council in 1965 as a secretary and subsequently served as our Theatre and Dance Officer and then as Director of Operations. Jim Norcop joined us first as Music Officer in 1967 and later became our Touring Officer.

However, this year Charlotte and Jim decided it was time for a change and they retired from the Council to their refurbished country home at Petawawa.

Our deep gratitude to Charlotte and Jim for their immense contribution to the Council's character and activities, as well as our fondest wishes for a happy future go with them into the Ottawa Valley.

And there were other changes, too, among our colleagues in government. When the Council was created in 1963, it was lodged for legislative reporting purposes in the Ministry of Education. Later the Council was shifted to the Ministry of Colleges and Universities and finally, in 1975, found a home within the newly established Ministry of Culture and Recreation.

There we were privileged to work with two fine Ministers, first the founding Minister, the Honourable Robert Welsh, and then his successor, the Honourable Reuben Baetz.

This year, the Ministry itself enjoyed evolution, being transformed into the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture, and we welcomed another Minister, the Honourable Bruce McCaffrey. We look forward to a close and productive partnership with Mr. McCaffrey and his Ministry colleagues, working for the artistic enrichment of Ontario.

Allocution du Président

Ce rapport coïncide avec le dix-huitième anniversaire du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario.

Nous avons désormais atteint l'âge de raison.

Le Conseil a été créé en 1963 par un acte législatif qui fut présenté par l'ancien premier ministre John Robarts et notre premier président fut feu le lieutenant-gouverneur, J. Keiller Mackay. Le Conseil a reçu une subvention de $300 000 du gouvernement de l'Ontario pour favoriser l'essor des activités artistiques de la province.

Cette somme paraissait alors considérable, vu à cette époque le développement des arts en Ontario.

Mais qui aurait pu prévoir l'étonnante efflorescence artistique qui allait se produire au cours des deux prochaines décennies — surtout pendant les années 70 qui furent si mouvementées — l'intérêt populaire, le soutien et la participation envers les arts allaient prendre un essor prodigieux.

Les arts fleurirent ainsi que les ressources du Conseil des Arts.

Au cours de l'exercice financier 1981-1982, nous avons octroyé des subventions d'une valeur globale de $12 000 000 à plus de 1 170 programmes artistiques et 1 495 artistes à travers toute la province.

Depuis 18 ans, le Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario reçoit des subventions du gouvernement de l'Ontario, d'une valeur totale de plus de $100 000 000 pour favoriser l'épanouissement des arts dans la province.

C'est un extraordinaire investissement qui a porté ses fruits.

La ville de Toronto se classe désormais en troisième place comme centre de productions de théâtre anglophones après New York et Londres.

On vient de célébrer cet événement cette année, lors du Festival international de théâtre à Toronto qui a présenté en un mois, 900 représentations et plus de 122 productions théâtrales. Le premier ministre, M. William Davis a souligné lors d'un important discours sur la politique culturelle, la prodigieuse floraison des arts en Ontario.

Il a même déclaré que ce développement artistique et culturel était ni plus ni moins "explosif".

Cette année, j'ai eu le plaisir de visiter 16 communautés de l'Ontario pour donner des discours devant un public varié sur l'importance des arts et le mandat du Conseil.

J'ai fait écho aux paroles du premier ministre Trudeau et du premier ministre Davis, qui ont reconnu que les arts sont le coeur de l'industrie canadienne et contribuent à environ 6 milliards de dollars par an à notre produit national brut. Nos dirigeants ont enfin souligné que c'est l'industrie la plus riche que nous possédons et qui dépasse de loin l'industrie de l'acier et de la pâte à papier au Canada.

Une industrie de cette envergure a une portée indéniable sur toutes les communautés du Canada.

On a eu récemment la preuve de ce qui peut se produire lorsque les activités des principaux établissements artistiques sont interrompues ou menacées de disparaître. Lors de l'interruption du Festival de Stratford, de la Galerie d'art canadienne McMichael à Kleinberg ou du Musée royal de l'Ontario situé en plein coeur de Toronto, les dirigeants civiques, les hommes d'affaires et les commerçants ont rapidement réalisé les conséquences désastreuses de la perte du tourisme dans leur région.

Les arts contribuent énormément à la vitalité économique de nos communautés petites et larges à travers la province. Et il est grand temps que les particuliers et les entreprises reconnaissent et offrent le soutien nécessaire à l'épanouissement des arts.

Il ne faut pas oublier que pour chaque dollar qui est versé aux arts, que ce soit en revenu gagné, contributions publiques ou subventions gouvernementales, 70¢ est versé en salaires pour maintenir et créer des emplois.

En cette période de crise économique, c'est sûrement une bonne raison de reconnaître et de soutenir les arts.

Mais je vois cependant une autre raison pour soutenir les arts dans nos communautés.

Je suis personnellement convaincu que nous avons encore bien plus besoin de l'influence restorative des arts pendant cette déprimante période d'instabilité économique. Les arts nous reposent l'esprit, nous procurent de la sagesse et un sentiment d'unité.

Malheureusement les nombreuses pressions de notre société actuelle contribuent à nous séparer avec crainte, méfiance, frustration et ressentiment.

Les arts nous rapprochent merveilleusement les uns des autres, nous lient étroitement à des communautés en nous faisant partager une expérience humaine inoubliable qui nous rend sensibles et reconnaissants.

Les arts méritent constamment notre sincère attention et support, et aujourd'hui, ils ont un besoin urgent de notre soutien pour survivre.

Nous assistons tous les ans à des changements parmi les 12 membres bénévoles du Conseil qui sont nommés par le gouvernement de l'Ontario pour un mandat de trois ans. Nous disons constamment au revoir à nos membres et souhaitons la bienvenue à leur remplaçant. Cette année n'a pas fait exception à la règle.

En mai dernier, M. H.T. Crozier Taylor de Niagara-on-the Lake nous a quitté, son mandat était terminé et en juin, nous avons accueilli Peter Harris, artiste renommé et directeur de la Galerie d'art Rodman Hall à St-Catharines, qui est venu grossir les rangs du Conseil.

Cette année, nous avons également assisté avec tristesse au départ de deux de nos anciens membres du personnel les plus respectés, Charlotte Holmes-Norcop et James Norcop.

Charlotte Holmes a débuté au Conseil en 1965 en tant que secrétaire. Elle est devenue ensuite responsable du bureau du théâtre et de la danse, puis directeur du bureau des opérations. Jim Norcop a débuté au Conseil en 1967 en tant que responsable du bureau de la musique, puis il a pris ensuite le poste de responsable du bureau des tournées.

Charlotte et Jim aspiraient à un changement. Ils nous ont quitté pour aller s'installer dans leur charmante villa campagnarde de Petawawa qu'ils viennent juste de retaper.

Nous les remercions pour leur précieuse contribution envers les activités du Conseil et nous leur souhaitons beaucoup de bonheur dans la vallée de l'outaouais.

Nous avons assisté à d'autres changements parmi nos collègues du gouvernement. Lorsque le Conseil a été créé en 1963, nous dépendions du Ministère de l'Éducation, puis du Ministère des Collèges et Universités et en 1975, nous sommes devenus une agence du tout nouveau Ministère des Affaires culturelles et des Loisirs.

Nous avons eu également le privilège de travailler avec deux excellents ministres, l'honorable Robert Welsh, ministre fondateur et l'honorable Reuben Baetz.

Le ministère a subi quelques changements et s'intitule désormais le ministère des Affaires civiques et culturelles. Nous souhaitons la bienvenue au nouveau ministre, l'honorable Bruce McCaffrey. Nous nous attendons à une association productive et intime avec M. McCaffrey et ses collègues au ministère, qui travaillent d'arrache-pied pour favoriser l'essor artistique en Ontario.

Executive Director's Report

The year 1982 may be remembered as the year that the educational system became aware of the arts and the need to emphasize their importance to the minds and spirit of children and young people.

That is not to say that there has not been some extraordinarily effective programs in music and art (less likely in dance) in many elementary and secondary schools. Indeed, to listen to the choir and orchestras in many urban schools would give the impression that the arts are alive and thriving throughout our educational system.

However, such is not the case in many institutions — and certainly there is no guarantee that individual students would be confronted by a high quality of instruction.

This year, the Hon. Bette Stephenson, Minister of Education made an important statement about the role of the arts in Ontario schools.

In an uncertain future, she stated, young people will need:

"opportunities to experience the feelings of others through singing their songs, performing their dances, listening to their music and viewing their paintings; opportunities to learn about others through shared experiences in creating art, music, drama and dance; opportunities to discover the nature of things through imaginative play and visual and auditory self-expression; opportunities to bring order and meaning into their subjective experiences by exploring relationships in the arts. And with those, the underlying values and responsibilities".

It is clear that the work of the Ontario Arts Council has had some effect on that educational system. Over many years, hundreds of performances before millions of children, by companies dedicated to high quality productions for children have taken place in the auditoriums and gymnasiums of our schools, As well, hundreds of artists have spent hours with hundreds of thousands of young people, giving them an insight of the skill and commitment an artist brings to his or her art. This experience has touched the hearts of countless teachers and students — and these will make up the audiences of Ontario's symphony orchestras and theatre companies in the days ahead. These are the people who will wander and wonder in the provinces' many galleries.

Now, the sudden surge of interest by the leadership within the Ministry of Education has already created a plethora of activity in the upper echelons of the Ministry and promises even more committee meetings within the province's regions. For the Arts Council this renewed commitment is a welcome development. However, fear must also be articulated that unless a shift in normal procedure takes place, arts education will become imprisoned in the classroom — an institutionalized, rather than liberating experience for young people.

Now that is not to say that there are not hundreds of good teachers who have and will teach the arts to the best of their ability, and hopefully now with more support from the administration of municipality, region, and province. But for other teachers who have no skills or aptitudes — and in some cases no interest in any art forms, the prospect is terrifying. Obviously, there must be an intense period of orientation on the part of the profession to what this invitation represents — and a banishing of the clouds of fear, resentment and suspicion that any change in provincial educational policy inevitably inspires.

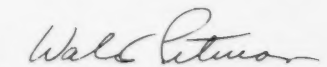
It is to this cause that the work of the Arts Council is encouraging theatre groups, musical ensembles, art galleries and individual artists.

We all know how essential it is to have children and young people experience the joy of creativity and participation in the world of the arts. Increasing evidence indicates that many children can learn a number of skills and acquire other information through the portals of music, dance, theatre and visual arts. It is even becoming apparent that many young people will find employment in some area of the arts as computer chips destroy jobs in office and factory. Most important of all, there is a wider recognition of how important to the mental, spiritual and emotional well-being of all of us the arts have become.

If this is the case, then it behooves the arts community to take a deep interest in what is transpiring in our schools. Arts education must be encouraged and those engaged in its development supported. The opening of schools to the presence of artists, theatrical companies and musical ensembles is essential in any effort to enhance the arts in our schools. Arts education of all forms of activity must involve the total community within which the school operates and must not be seen merely as just another curriculum development like the others that have ebbed and flowed through our classrooms in the past.

This is a challenge to the Arts Council, to every arts organization and every artist. The quality of Ontario culture in the '80's and '90's may depend on the degree of our concern and our willingness to sacrifice time and energy to the next generation of artists and audiences.

A final comment. The Ontario Arts Council has for 19 years dispensed resources to a growing and strengthening arts community. That it has done so largely without the abrasion and recrimination public granting bodies attract, should be a matter of some pride to a dedicated Council and a hard-working staff. But to pause for a moment of self congratulation would be untypical and perceived to be unproductive. May I at least state that without the quality of sacrifice of the aforementioned the influence of Council would simply be non-existent. And that would be a tragedy for the artistic life of this province.



Walter Pitman

Executive Director
Ontario Arts Council

Allocution du Directeur Général

L'année 1982 a été marquée par une prise de conscience de la part du système éducatif en ce qui concerne les arts et la nécessité d'alimenter la vie intellectuelle des enfants et des jeunes.

Il existait évidemment déjà des programmes extraordinairement efficaces dans les domaines de la musique et des arts (moins dans la danse) dans de nombreuses écoles élémentaires et secondaires. En effet, si on en juge par les chorales et les orchestres qui existent dans nombre d'écoles situées dans les centres urbains, on a l'impression que les arts sont en plein essor dans le système éducatif.

Ce n'est cependant pas le cas dans de nombreux établissements — et il n'y a certainement aucune garantie que les élèves reçoivent un enseignement de premier ordre.

Cette année, L'Hon. Bette Stephenson, ministre de l'Education a fait une déclaration importante sur le rôle des arts dans les écoles en Ontario.

Devant un avenir incertain, elle a déclaré que les jeunes gens auront besoin de ce qui suit:

"des possibilités d'éprouver les sentiments d'autres personnes en chantant leurs chansons, en interprétant leurs danses, en écoutant leur musique et en regardant leurs tableaux;

des possibilités de partager des expériences avec d'autres personnes en se consacrant à la création d'oeuvres d'art, de musique, de théâtre et de danse;

des possibilités de découvrir la nature des choses grâce à des pièces originales et à l'expression visuelle et auditive;

des possibilités de redonner de l'ordre et de la signification à leurs expériences subjectives en recherchant des relations dans les arts. Enfin, les valeurs profondes et les responsabilités."

Il est évident que le travail du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario a eu un certain effet sur le système éducatif. Des troupes présentent, depuis de nombreuses années, des spectacles de haut calibre devant des millions d'enfants dans les auditoriums et les gymnases des écoles. Il y a également des centaines d'artistes qui ont consacré de nombreuses heures pour donner à des milliers de jeunes gens une vision des compétences et des engagements des artistes envers leur art. Cette expérience a touché le coeur d'un grand nombre d'enseignants et d'élèves — ces personnes forment le public des orchestres symphoniques et des troupes de théâtre dans les années à venir et elles s'émerveilleront en se promenant dans les nombreuses galeries d'art de la province.

Or, l'intérêt soudain de la part des responsables du ministère de l'Education a déjà créé une pléthore d'activités dans les hauts échelons de ce ministère et on peut s'attendre à de nombreuses réunions de comités dans les diverses régions de la province. Le Conseil des Arts accueille avec plaisir ce renouveau d'engagements. Mais, à moins qu'il n'y ait un changement dans les méthodes habituelles, on craint aussi que les arts ne soient emprisonnés dans les salles de classe — ce qui se traduirait par une expérience artistique institutionnalisée au lieu, d'une expérience libératrice pour les jeunes.

Nous ne voulons pas dire par là qu'il n'y ait pas des centaines d'excellents enseignants qui ont enseigné et que enseigneront les arts du mieux qu'ils peuvent, avec l'espoir désormais d'obtenir la collaboration de l'administration de la municipalité, de la région et de la province. Mais, pour les autres enseignants qui n'ont pas les compétences ni les aptitudes requises et qui, dans certains cas, ne démontrent aucun intérêt envers les arts en général, les perspectives sont effrayantes. Il est évident qu'il devra y avoir une période intense d'orientation pour les membres du corps enseignant, en vue de leur expliquer la signification de cette invitation, et il faudra chasser la peur, le ressentiment et la suspicion qu'inspire inévitablement tout changement dans la politique provinciale à l'égard de l'enseignement.

La tâche du Conseil des Arts est d'encourager les troupes de théâtre, les ensembles de musique, les galeries d'art et les artistes à soutenir cette cause.

Nous connaissons tous l'importance pour nos enfants et nos jeunes d'éprouver la joie de créer et de participer au monde artistique. On est de plus en plus convaincu que de nombreux enfants peuvent apprendre nombre de talents pratiques et acquérir d'autres renseignements grâce aux domaines de la musique, de la danse, du théâtre et des arts plastiques. Il est d'ailleurs de plus en plus évident que de nombreux jeunes trouveront des emplois dans certains domaines artistiques, car la vogue des ordinateurs élimine de plus en plus d'emplois dans les bureaux et les usines. L'important, c'est une plus grande prise de conscience de la portée des arts pour notre bien-être mental, spirituel et émotionnel.

Si c'est le cas, il appartient alors à la communauté artistique de s'intéresser plus profondément à ce qui se passe dans nos écoles. On doit favoriser l'enseignement des arts et encourager les personnes qui contribuent à l'essor artistique. Il faut ouvrir la voie aux artistes, aux troupes de théâtre et aux ensembles de musique pour qu'ils puissent mettre les arts en valeur dans nos écoles. La communauté tout entière doit participer à l'enseignement de toutes les disciplines artistiques et ces activités ne doivent pas être perçues comme un programme d'études comme les autres, qui ont eu une vogue passagère dans les salles de classe pour retomber ensuite dans l'oubli.

Le défi a été lancé au Conseil des Arts, à tous les organismes artistiques et les artistes. La qualité de la culture en Ontario dans les années 80 et 90 dépendra de notre souci et de notre désir de sacrifier le temps et l'énergie nécessaires pour encourager la prochaine génération d'artistes et le public de l'avenir.

Un dernier commentaire encore. En 19 ans, le Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario a dispensé des ressources à une communauté artistique qui ne cesse de progresser et de s'épanouir. Cet essor a été réalisé sans attirer les critiques et les récriminations que reçoivent habituellement les institutions publiques qui distribuent des fonds, et le Conseil est fier des résultats accomplis et ne peut passer sous silence les efforts de son personnel. Mais nous ne nous attarderons pas trop à nous féliciter nous-mêmes, car cela risquerait d'être jugé un acte étrange et improductif. Je déclarerais cependant que, sans la qualité des sacrifices accomplis par les personnes susmentionnées, l'influence du Conseil serait tout simplement inexistante, ce qui serait tragique pour la vie artistique de notre province.

Arts/Education

Increasingly, the arts are being recognized as an essential component in the lives of children.

The Ontario Arts Council's Arts/Education Office provides assistance to school touring companies in theatre, music and dance, and brings professional creative artists of all disciplines into direct contact with students in a classroom situation.

These programs contribute to the artistic enrichment of Ontario's young people by helping them explore and develop their own creativity.

Officer: Irene Turrin

Arts/Education

Les arts ont pris un essor considérable dans la vie des enfants.

Le Bureau des Arts/Education du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario offre des subventions aux troupes qui font des tournées dans les écoles dans les domaines du théâtre, de la musique et de la danse. Il permet aussi aux artistes créateurs professionnels de toutes les disciplines artistiques d'être en relation directe avec les élèves dans un cadre scolaire.

Ces programmes contribuent à l'epanouissement artistique des jeunes en Ontario tout en leur permettant d'explorer et de développer leur propre créativité.

Community Arts Development

From Kenora to Cornwall community arts development in the province is alive and growing.

In co-operation with the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture, the Community Arts Development Office offers support to regional and local arts councils, arts organizations, festivals and groups wishing to promote arts activities in addition to providing grants for craftsmen and native development in the arts.

With such financial assistance and the help of thousands of dedicated volunteers throughout the province, Ontario's cultural life is guaranteed an exciting future.

Officer: Naomi Lightbourn
Senior associate officer: Walter Sunahara

Dance

Classical and contemporary styles are reflected among the creative individuals and organizations within Ontario's dance community.

Professional dancers, non-profit dance companies and dance service organizations have shared in the support provided by the Ontario Arts Council's Dance Office towards the development of new choreography, operations, touring and festivals.

As the demand for dance continues to grow in the province, Ontario citizens will benefit from performance opportunities as a spin-off from OAC's support to the dance community.

Film, Photography and Video

Individuals who use film, video or still photography as their medium of expression contribute much to the artistic environment in which we live.

Many of these artists are assisted in their work by Ontario Arts Council film and video production grants. In addition, OAC provides project and exhibition grants to photographers and support to screenings, non-profit organizations, festivals, seminars or professional development programs serving the needs of artists working in these disciplines. The success OAC encourages public support of these activities has been growing, giving Ontario citizens greater opportunity to see and share the talents of these creative artists.

Franco-ontarien

La communauté artistique ontaroise reflète sans complaisance, avec force et conviction, l'authenticité de la culture française des gens d'ici.

Le Bureau franco-ontarien du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario, offre un éventail de programmes de subvention, adaptés aux besoins spécifiques des artistes, compagnies et organismes ontarois.

Le Conseil offre des subventions aux théâtres, centres culturels, festivals et galeries d'art, de même qu'aux artistes en arts plastiques, chansonniers, dramaturges, écrivains et cinéastes.

Les ontarois et ontaroises de toute la province ont ainsi accès à cette culture qui leur est propre, et qui est aujourd'hui en plein effervescence.

Le responsable:
Jeanne Sabourin
Le responsable adjoint
Jean Malavoy

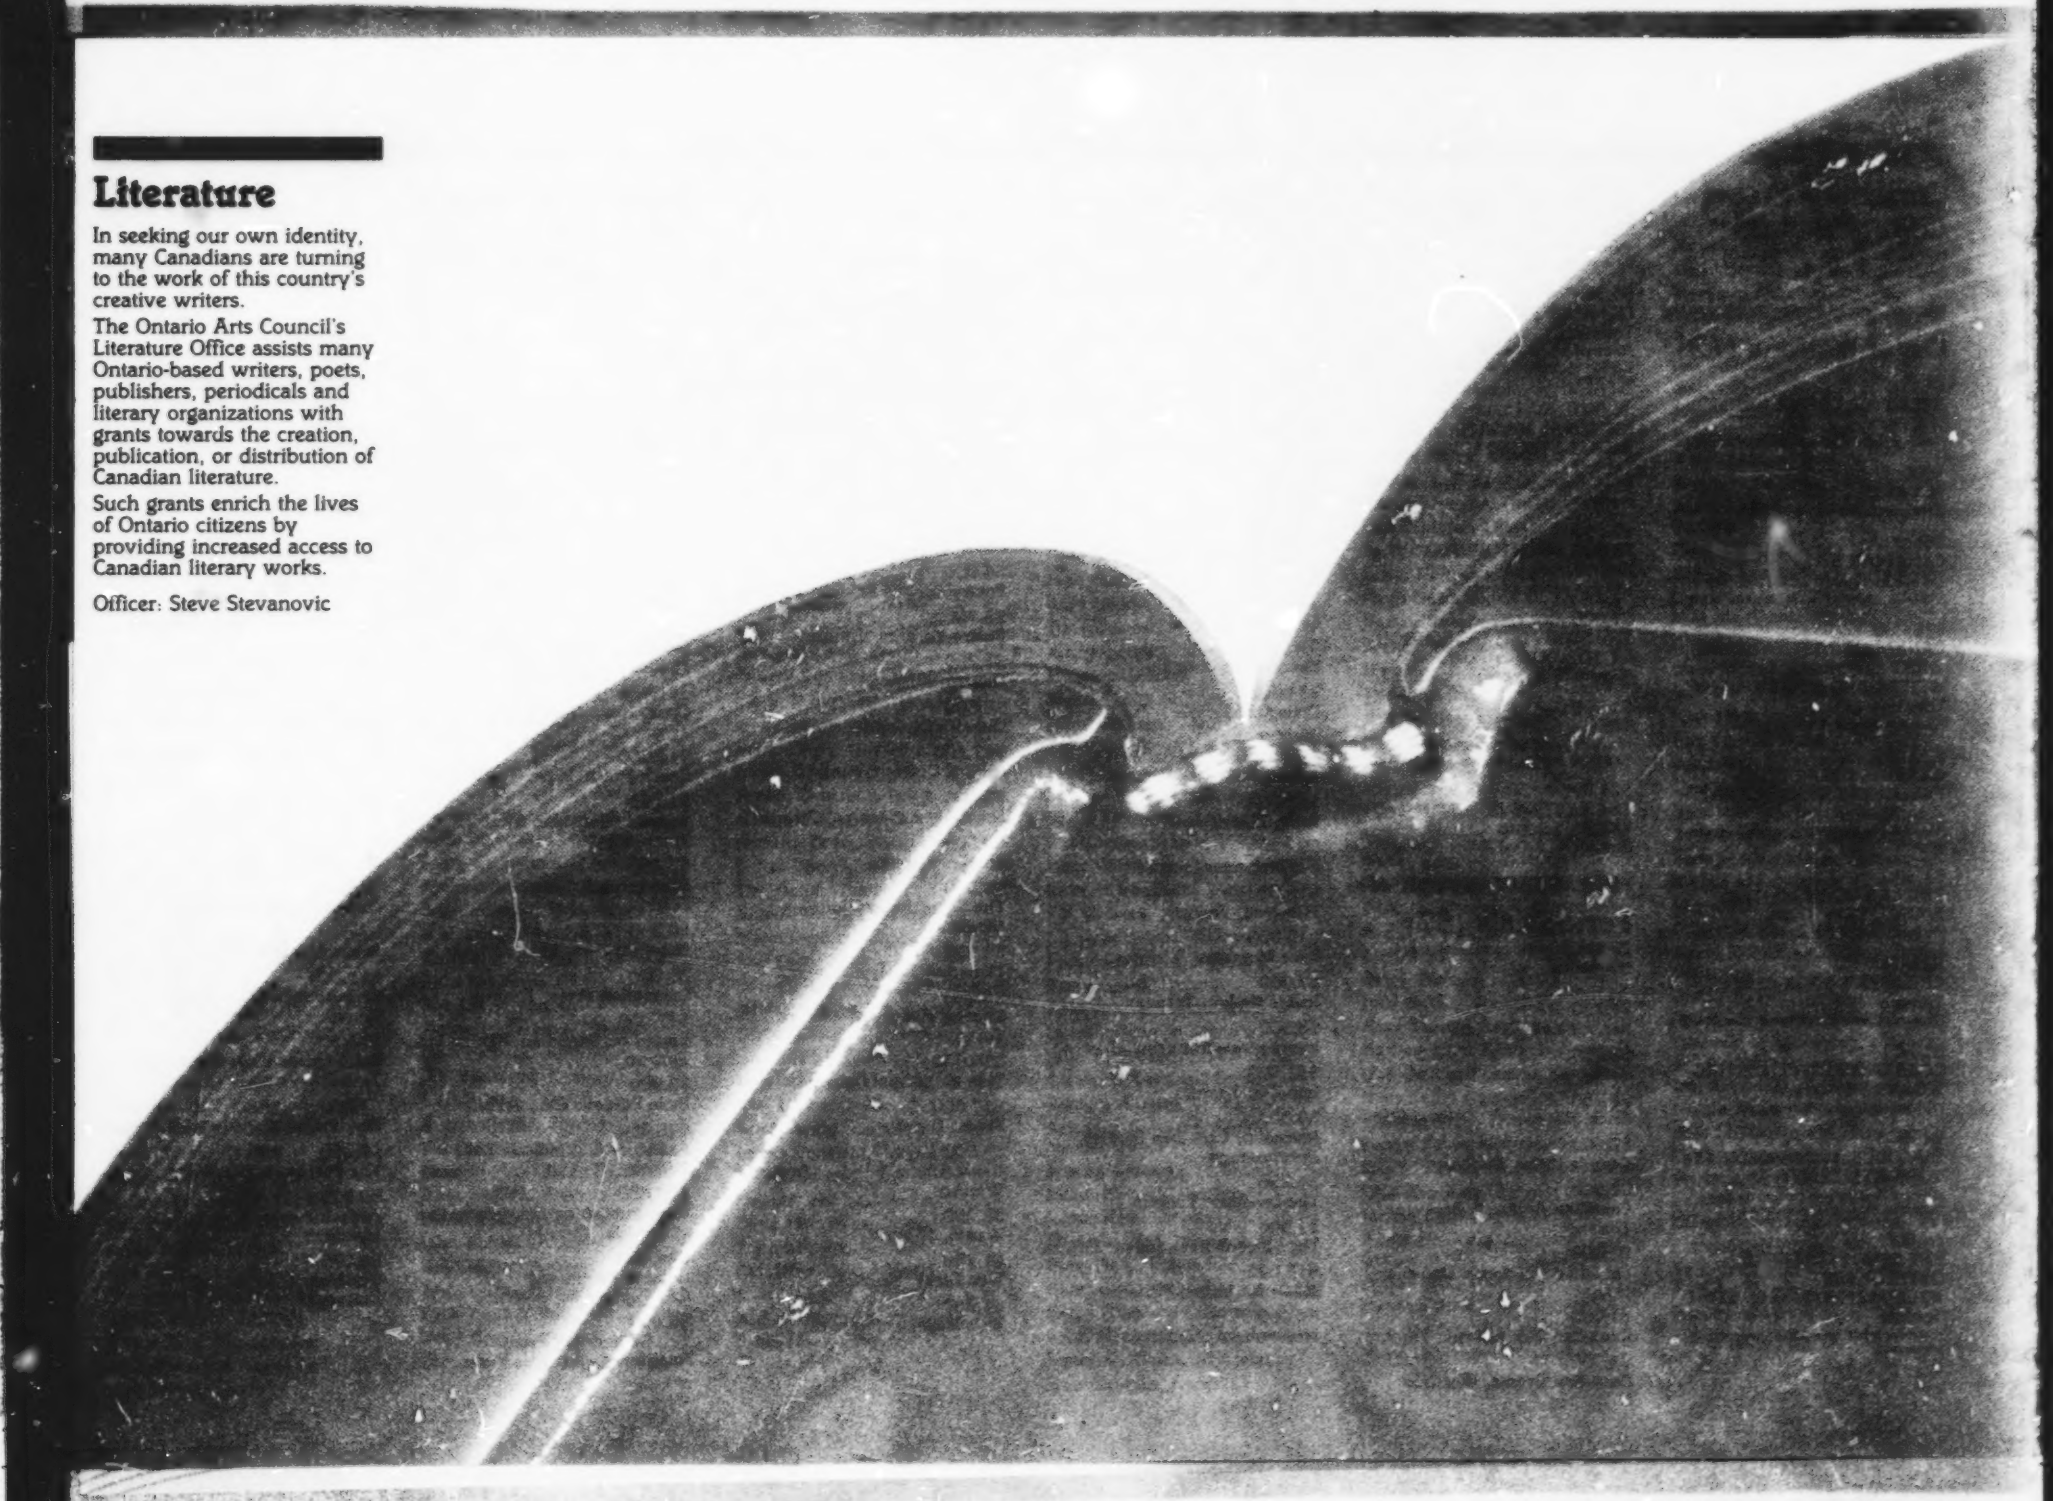
Literature

In seeking our own identity, many Canadians are turning to the work of this country's creative writers.

The Ontario Arts Council's Literature Office assists many Ontario-based writers, poets, publishers, periodicals and literary organizations with grants towards the creation, publication, or distribution of Canadian literature.

Such grants enrich the lives of Ontario citizens by providing increased access to Canadian literary works.

Officer: Steve Stevanovic



Current Commitments

Awarded and to be paid in 1981-82 fiscal year.

Music

With two thirds of all orchestral activity in Canada located in Ontario, with the growth of music festivals, and of series devoted to particular composers or repertoire, music continues to have a major impact on the cultural life of the province.

Orchestras, ensembles, opera companies, festivals, choirs and composers have been assisted through Ontario Arts Council music grant programs towards operations, projects, hiring of professionals and creation of new work. The OAC also makes a significant contribution toward the training of professional musicians.

Ontarians have benefitted from these grant programs by greater access to concerts, resident musicians, professional soloists for community choirs and development of new work by Canadian composers.

Officer: Gwenlyn Creech

Music consultant:
Voltr Ivonoffski

Ontour

Volunteer touring sponsors are the backbone of cultural development in the province.

The Ontario Arts Council's Ontour Office assists these community sponsors through grant programs which enable them to engage professional performances. In addition, touring consultants provide counsel and advice in establishing and maintaining touring programs.

Ontario audiences have been the beneficiaries of OAC assisted performances featuring more than 3,000 performers in close to 130 communities.

Officer: Nan Whitlaw

Ontour

Les organismes de parrainage bénévoles sont la force de l'efflorescence culturelle de la province.

Le bureau Ontour du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario aide les organismes de parrainage communautaires grâce à des programmes de subventions qui leur permettent d'engager des artistes de calibre professionnel. De plus, les conseillers des tournées donnent des conseils et des consultations aux parrains pour qu'ils puissent établir et maintenir des programmes de tournées.

Les auditoires de l'Ontario ont pu profiter des spectacles grâce aux subventions du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario. Ces spectacles ont regroupé plus de 3 000 artistes dans près de 130 communautés.

Le responsable: Nan Whitlaw

Theatre

With the extraordinary development in regional theatre, Toronto's recognition as the centre of theatre production in Canada, and established companies expanding their activities and productions, theatre continues to play a leadership role in the cultural growth of the province.

That growth has been assisted by the Ontario Arts Council's Theatre Office through programs towards operations, projects and new play development.

Whether it's a winter season or a summer festival, Ontario citizens continue to have more opportunities to experience the work of Ontario theatre companies and playwrights.

Visual Arts

The work of Ontario's visual artists continues to be more widely recognized throughout the province and beyond.

To provide assistance and support with further development in the visual arts, the Ontario Arts Council provides grants for creation, exhibition, programming, training and criticism.

Such assistance to the visual arts contributes to the cultural enrichment of the province and its people.

Officer: Nancy Hushion

Arts Plastiques

Le travail des artistes en arts plastiques de l'Ontario est en plein essor et ne cesse d'être reconnu tant dans la province qu'à l'extérieur.

Le Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario offre des subventions pour la création, les expositions, la programmation, la formation et le criticisme pour permettre aux artistes de se perfectionner davantage.

Ces diverses formes d'aide dans les arts plastiques ne font que contribuer à l'efflorescence culturelle de la province et de ses habitants.

Le responsable: Nancy Hushion

Programs

The Ontario Arts Council is involved with a variety of programs in addition to the awarding of grants. Some of these projects are administered through the appropriate discipline office, others are undertaken by general administration or information services. The Council also administers endowment funds, and grants for the Ministry of Northern Affairs. It consults regularly with advisors throughout the province in evaluating arts achievement.

Programs Administered by The Ontario Arts Council

CONTACT 81
A showcase of Canadian performing artists and groups sponsored by the Ontario Arts Council through the Contact Office.

$25,000
CONTACT ONTARIO 81
Conference des arts d'interprétation parrainé par le Bureau Franco-ontarien du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario.

REFERENCE 81
Under the sponsorship of the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture and the Ontario Youth Secretariat, this program provided opportunities for 121 young people to gain practical work experience with professional arts organizations and individual artists throughout the province. Technical, performance and administrative positions were created in the fields of the arts in education, artist management, community arts development, dance, film, literature, music, photography, theatre, visual arts and Franco-Ontarian cultural affairs.

$150,000
INFORMATION SERVICES
This unit is responsible for carrying out all Council information programs and reporting Council activities. It includes the issuing of information to the media, the printing of publications, radio syndication, audio-visual, trade shows, speaking tours and other communications programs.

$7,500
TO KNOW OURSELVES CONFERENCE
Towards the Trent University proposal, Peterborough, Ontario.

$100,000
TOURING CONSULTANTS PROGRAM
Seven provincial touring consultants, residing in Kingston, North Bay, Perth, London, Sudbury Lake and Sioux Lake were available to local sponsors throughout the province to help establish and maintain touring programs. A full-time Franco-Ontarian touring consultant was also available to provide assistance to Francophone sponsors and artists.

Endowments Administered by The Ontario Arts Council

An additional service to the arts which the Ontario Arts Council offers, but which may be somewhat less known than its granting activities, is the administration of endowment funds. Such funds usually result from donations or bequests from an individual or foundation wishing to contribute to the support of the arts, but preferring to leave the year-to-year decisions on awards from the fund to a body with continuing expertise in this area. The Council has an Investment Committee and is audited annually by the Provincial Auditor for Ontario.

The Ontario Arts Council will accept any size of bequest or donation for its general endowment fund. However, if a donor wishes to provide for an annual award or grant for a specific purpose, the donation or bequest generally needs to be at least $10,000.

Donations are treated as charitable donations for income tax purposes, and Council issues a tax receipt to the extent allowed by law. A prospective donor may wish to provide for a bequest. This can be taken care of by a simple clause in a will, or a codicil to it.

Further information on the Council's administration of endowment funds can be obtained from:

Auditor's letter

To the Province of Ontario Council for the Arts and to the Minister of Citizenship and Culture.

I have examined the balance sheet of the Province of Ontario Council for the Arts as at March 31, 1982 and the statement of income, expenditure and retained income for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Council as at March 31, 1982 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with the basis of accounting described in Note 1 to the financial statements, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

In accordance with section 11 of The Arts Council Act, a report on the audit has been made to the Council and to the Minister.

D. F. Archer, F.C.A.,
Provincial Auditor
Toronto, Ontario
August 18, 1982
